

अपने मन में डूब कर पा जा सुराग़-ए-ज़िन्दगी
तू अगर मेरा नहीं बन्ता, न बन, अपना तो बन

اپنے من میں ڈوب کر پا جا سراغ زندگی
تو اگر میرا نہیں بنتا، نہ بن، اپنا تو بن

Apne man mein doob kar pa ja suraagh-e zindagi
Too agar Mera nahin banta na ban, apna to ban

Says God to human beings:

Dip yourself deep inside your heart, mind and conscience and explore the purpose of life.

Even if you are not able to fully identify yourself with Me, at least, be conscious of your own full worth.

Iqbal's Recipe of Poetic Steroids

Compiled & presented by

Iqbal introduces his notion of Khudi, or selfhood. Arising from a desire to awaken the society he makes the individual conscious of his / her vital role for the society's uplift. Iqbal's Khudi is the consciousness by the individual of the divine attributes embedded in his / her soul by the Creator. Thus, he inspires the individual to strive to rise to godly qualities for the sake of helping out God's creatures to have a better life.

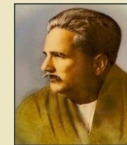

Iqbal expects the individual to be like Shaheen, the eagle whose personal needs are minimal but who is fully aware of his role as a selfless activist in the kingdom of birds.

Likewise, Iqbal wishes the human being to be continuously proactive like a wave in the ocean. He says that if the wave decides to be passive it loses its existence.
